▪ Points Covered

- The meeting was chaired Mr. Nagesh Kumar, Vice-President of the Association.
- New members were asked to introduce themselves.
- The need for conducting Online meetings was discussed, as they provide opportunity for members to connect more often, and from anywhere in our state.
- After extensive discussions where most members expressed their views, and clarifications were given on questions raised, the following conclusions were made:

- The planned Independence Day celebrations can be conducted with everyone participating thru Video Conference, except 3-4 members who may gather to manage Flag Hoisting.
- The draft Newsletter will be presented to office-bearers of TSSKA for the review and approval, and a decision on it's release will be taken this week.
- There is in-principle agreement to take up other initiatives like "Skills Development", "Member Data Collection" and "Web Site Implementation", whose plans will be presented in the next EC meeting, for further discussions and necessary decisions.

■ Action Items from the Meeting

1. Mr. Naresh Patnaik will draft the final agenda for the Independence Day event, and will work on all the logistics required.
2. Mr. Narasimha Rao Mantri will share the draft Newsletter with office-bearers of TSSKA. A decision on its release will be made in this week.
3. The Office Bearers of TSSKA to take up:
 - Giving formal Association/EC Membership to new members.
 - The date and time for next EC meeting, to discuss more initiatives.

■ Meeting ended at 9:05 p.m.
